

To whom it may concern:

Mark Goldberg is an outstanding videotape editor. He has worked for me on at least twelve different shows over the past several years. Over half of these shows are documentary in nature, and several of these have won first place ITVA awards.

Mark has a strong degree of organizational ability in terms of structuring documentary and